

do. be. live. CHURCH

The multisite ministry of Barrington UMC and
First UMC West Dundee welcome you to outdoor worship!

Sunday, September 13, 2020

The BUMC Health Team has developed some procedures in line with the CDC and NIC in order to keep us all as safe as possible. If you or any member of your family develops any of the Covid-19 symptoms or just does not feel well, please do not attend the worship service. Once at the church you must have a face covering and practice social distancing of at least 6 feet from other attendees. (If you are unsure of what six foot distance is, usually fully extended arms are generally equivalent to your height and accommodate for the needed inches).

Please offer each other greetings, wave or bow without any physical touching.

WELCOME

OPENING PRAYER

Dear God, you have called us out of our homes and our hiding places. You have called us out of the darkness of sin, despair and disillusionment into the light of righteousness and joy and hope.

You gather us around your table to share in the feast of salvation and so we give you thanks and praise!

Where, in past days, we have failed to live as people of promise, forgive us.

Where we have turned away from those in our world who are hurting from injustice, hungry for change and oppressed by loss and grief, reengage us.

Where we ourselves have grown weary and lost hope, renew us.

Help us to not only long for a day where everyone born has a place at your table, remind us that we are people of your kingdom of love and mercy and grace and plenty. May our worship and our going forth be pleasing to you.

In Jesus' name we pray

MEDITATION ON THE HYMN

For Everyone Born a Place At the Table

As this hymn is played, you are invited to silently sing and meditate in your heart on the words and melody.

For everyone born, a place at the table,
for everyone born, clean water and bread,
a shelter, a space, a safe place for growing,
for everyone born, a star overhead,

and God will delight when we are creators
of justice and joy, compassion and peace:
yes, God will delight when we are creators
of justice, justice and joy!

For woman and man, a place at the table,
revising the roles, deciding the share,
with wisdom and grace, dividing the power,
for woman and man, a system that's fair,

and God will delight when we are creators
of justice and joy, compassion and peace:
yes, God will delight when we are creators
of justice, justice and joy!

GREAT THANKSGIVING PRAYER

As the pastor leads us through the liturgy, you are invited to offer the responses in bold silently in your heart.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, creator of heaven and earth. By your appointment the seasons come and go. You bring forth bread from the earth and create the fruit of the vine. You formed us in your image and made us stewards of your world. Earth has yielded its treasure, and from your hand we have received blessing on blessing. And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ. Though he was rich, yet for our sake he became poor. When hungry and tempted, he refused to make bread for himself that he might be the bread of life for others. When the multitudes were hungry, he fed them. He broke bread with the outcast but drove the greedy from the temple.

By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection you gave birth to your Church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit. On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." When the supper was over he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood. By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory, and we feast at his heavenly banquet. Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.
