

do. be. live. CHURCH

The multisite ministry of Barrington UMC and
First UMC West Dundee welcome you to outdoor worship!

Sunday, September 20, 2020

The BUMC Health Team has developed some procedures in line with the CDC and NIC in order to keep us all as safe as possible. If you or any member of your family develops any of the Covid-19 symptoms or just does not feel well, please do not attend the worship service. Once at the church you must have a face covering and practice social distancing of at least 6 feet from other attendees. (If you are unsure of what six foot distance is, fully extended arms are generally equivalent to your height and accommodate for the needed inches).

Please offer each other greetings, wave or bow without any physical touching.

WELCOME

OPENING PRAYER

Almighty God,

We confess that we are often swept up in the tide of our generation.

We have failed in our calling to be your holy people,
a people set aside for your divine purpose.

We live more in apathy born of fatalism than in passion born of hope.

We are moved more by private ambition than by social justice.

We dream more of privilege and benefits than of service and sacrifice.

We try to speak in your name without relinquishing our glories, without nourishing our souls, without relying wholly on your grace.

Help us to make room in our hearts and our lives for you.

Forgive us, revive us, and reshape us in your image.

Amen.

MEDITATION ON THE HYMN

For Everyone Born a Place At the Table

As this hymn is played, you are invited to silently sing and meditate in your heart on the words and melody.

For everyone born, a place at the table,

for everyone born, clean water and bread,

a shelter, a space, a safe place for growing,

for everyone born, a star overhead,

and God will delight when we are creators

of justice and joy, compassion and peace:

yes, God will delight when we are creators

of justice, justice and joy!

For just and unjust, a place at the table,

abuser, abused, with need to forgive,

in anger, in hurt, a mindset of mercy,

for just and unjust, a new way to live,

and God will delight when we are creators

of justice and joy, compassion and peace:

yes, God will delight when we are creators

of justice, justice and joy!

GREAT THANKSGIVING PRAYER

As the pastor leads us through the liturgy, you are invited to offer the responses in bold silently in your heart.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, creator of heaven and earth. You formed us in your image and breathed into us the breath of life. When we turned away, and our love failed, your love remained steadfast. You delivered us from captivity, made covenant to be our sovereign God, and spoke to us through your prophets, who looked for that day when justice shall roll down like waters and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream, when nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore. And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ. Your Spirit anointed him to preach good news to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, and to announce that the time had come when you would save your people. He healed the sick, fed the hungry, and ate with sinners.

By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection you gave birth to your Church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." When the supper was over he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood. By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory, and we feast at his heavenly banquet. Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

INVITATION

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND CUP

PRAYER AFTER RECEIVING

Eternal God, we give you thanks for this holy mystery in which you have given yourself to us. Grant that we may go into the world in the strength of your Spirit, to give ourselves for others, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OFFERING

If you wish to place an offering in the plate there will be ushers waiting near the exits as you drive out of the parking lot. Our ushers will be wearing masks and gloves and will approach your car at your signal with a basket for you to place your offering. Please remember that we are grateful for every giver and every gift of time, talent and treasure.
